McGuinness Releases Four State Pension Audit Reports

DOVER (June 4, 2019) – Today, State Auditor Kathy McGuinness issued four separate audit reports involving the State Pension Office. In publishing the audits, McGuinness said, “I am pleased that each of the four audits included clean reports. For our hard working public sector employees, it is important that they have the confidence to know that their pensions are secure. I would like to extend my appreciation to the Pension Office for a job well done.”

These audits are a few of the more than 70 audits or investigations required by Delaware Code. As an independently elected office, the Auditor of Accounts serves all Delawareans by ensuring that their tax dollars are being spent in the manner intended.
